Invitation to Fast & Pray For the Nation July 1-3

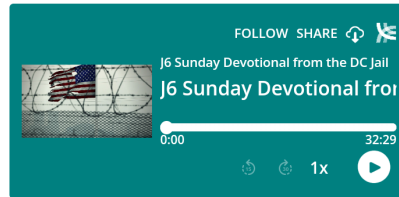

On this past Sunday's devotional Joseph Hutchinson spoke and read scriptures about being meek, singing His praises, and fasting for the nation. Not for Trump to be reelected, not for God to save the nation, but that God would turn the heart of the people back to him according to Joseph.

Prayer Points:

- For God to cause revival in the hearts of Americans
- The Holy Spirit would pour down on America and convict her of her sins and us of our sins
- Make our hearts tender to the Lord's will

If the people will pray, fast, and sing praises to the Lord for just three days what will this country see?

This week we were invited to join a fast for this nation, July 1st-3rd. We would love for you all to join and spread the word!

Andrew Johnson Dire Financial & Living Situation

Andrew Johnson is one of the many who have the government deciding their future while they grasp at what they can do for work and home and the things so many consider normal. Andrew appeared in the Gateway Pundit this past week letting the world know his journey through his writing, an interview, and a glimpse of his discovery. The videos include people breaking windows, entering the capitol building, the room he entered into, his arrest later in the day as well as the bus ride with Metropolitan PD after he was finally placed on the bus.

Andrew went to the nation's capitol on January 6th both due to Covid lockdowns that financially destroyed so many and due to the still growing list of questions about the 2020 elections how they were conducted

Michael Daniele was found not guilty of 2 felony civil disorder charges, although guilty of the standard 4 misdemeanors. (Image above taken from @FreeWillState on X)

J6 Ribbons Available

Ribbons support causes and bring awareness to a specific issue. This is no less true for J6ers.

The yellow represents the hope of all of them coming home.

The orange represents their clothing while incarcerated. Although orange is not the color worn in all facilities, it is in DC.

The Light In the Darkness Even In Prison

Last week I opened my email to the following beautiful email:

All,

I met an inmate who speaks almost no English, he is from China, some town a few hours from Beijing. Here at this prison, there are zero other prisoners who speak any dialect of Chinese, and there are also no translators. Frankly, we are not even sure why he is here. He was arrested in Guam which is why he is in the federal system. I reached out to my family, including my brother and sister-in-law (hello guys) who among them speak both Cantonese and Mandarin. I asked for a Bible and Dictionary in Mandarin. We had to do a little bit more digging to figure out if he read Simplified or Traditional characters. I did my best, and based on the fact he was from the mainland, we went with Mandarin and Simplified Characters...turned out to be a good guess.

Well, The Bible and Dictionary arrived today...Tonight at Rec I presented them to him...HE WAS GLOWING! He was so excited, he opened them up and immediately confirmed he could read them. Also, for the record...we have no idea if he is Christian, or frankly if he has ever even heard of Christianity...Think about it, he is from Mainland China, it's probable he is not a Christian. While my friends and I were talking, he was sitting not far on the grass reading his new Bible...He looked so content. He mimed something about Fish (likely from the Genesis story) and said something that sounded like Jehovah, lol...Who knows? Lol. Towards the end of rec, he looked up a phrase in the dictionary, walked over to us and said 'Near each other'... His accent was so thick we couldn't really understand, I asked for him to show me in the dictionary, he pointed to "Near each other"...He was pointing to all of us sitting on a picnic table and had looked up the word in Mandarin, and it translated to 'Near each other'...He was so proud to be able to describe something as simple as the fact we were sitting 'Near each other'...We helped him pronounce the words a little better so we could understand. He was so proud of himself, this is a grown man, at least as old as I am, and he was like a child, so excited.

I remember learning Portuguese, it can be so hard to not understand 90% of what you hear, and even more frustrating not to be able to form words and sentences to describe the world around you. But now, slowly, he can use that dictionary to literally find the words he needs. I imagine I will see him walking around with the dictionary using it to look for words on the signs around the prison (some critical), Menus, commissary, his paperwork, I imagine we just unlocked the world to him.

I want to thank Rob and Ching for making that happen, he was literally glowing, he was so grateful. I hope he really enjoys the bible, and hopefully it can change his life like it has billions of others. I will ask him if he was Christian, it hadn't crossed my mind till tonight when I saw him looking at the bible with wonder and reading it from the beginning (Chinese read top to bottom, Right to Left). One of the guys at the picnic table thought it was weird he was starting from Revelation...Till I reminded him they read backward from us...duh, lol.

Thank you everybody, say a prayer for our friend Li.

Look for Links of Truth. Save them. And use them. No Police were killed or injured. The Truth will set us free. Our numbers are greater but their voice is louder. Lets fix that.

We the People know we are coming from behind. our voices and opinions are being blocked by internet companies such as Google and Facebook. They have 2 underlying goals to doing this. First is very clear. So that our truths are blocked from the eyes and minds of Independents and on the fence voters. The second reason is more nefarious. And that is to deminish your will to want to remain engaged in the battle for truth. Giving yet another foot forward to their comrades in the Progressive media. You! yes you! can not let this happen.

As I sit in my Prison cell I hope and pray that I may reach you in the very soul inside of you. A call to what I know you are. A Patriot. A God Fearing, American with Red blood inside your veins. IF we do not go to war on the information Frontlines, we will lose this election.

Here is what I'm calling you to do. Every day you must be engaged with the fight for truth on many fronts. Create a folder on your computers with links to news that counters their lies. e.g. "Trump said there were good people on both sides" Find the whole speech he gave and save that link in your truth folder. Everything from him wanting 10k troops in D.C. on Jan 6 to Black unemployment numbers under his administration, to facts about the border.

IF someone online calls Trump "a racist" post a link to the truth of him giving HBCU's Billions of Dollars. IF someone says "Trump called for a bloodbath if he does not get elected" post a link to the whole speech. Take to the message boards of CNN and MSNBC and seek out the lies and post the truth. It is NEVER about winning over the person that posts the lies. It's about winning those that read it with the facts. Always be professional, never engaged in name calling. Just post the truth and walk away. People are seeing the lies made by the MSM. It is time to fight back hard. We can win this if we fight back now. Find the True American First candidates in your local elections and promote them every day. Call their lies out every day. The Truth and the Lord is on our side. We must be the sword. Now start swinging!

with Love,
