

DAY 1286 of the J6 Political Hostage Crisis July 16, 2024

Bastille Day 1 Year Anniversary

Robert Morss has been incarcerated since June 11, 2021 (according to patriotmailproject.com). He was arrested on the last day of school, and that ended his teaching career as of now. The state of Pennsylvania has revoked his teaching license making it appear to be final.

A year ago, yesterday, on the anniversary of Bastille Day the former history teacher launched his website akatheleggoman.com where one can go and learn where the name “Lego Man” came from, learn about his journey, and a little history also. He continues to teach even though his voice is limited due to his incarceration in the federal BOP system. Despite the limited voice, he appears in this month’s Northern Neck Sentinel (nnsentinel.com)

Mitchel Gardner Trying to Provide for Children

After being incarcerated for 2 to 3 years it is rather difficult to provide for one’s children and wife. Even the smallest donation will help. The greatest of Todd’s concerns is providing for his children. This information was shared with me by an advocate who is in contact with Todd and several other J6ers.

“Todd” Mitchell Gardner III – #52419-509
Getting Back On My Feet Fund

Todd just found out that he won’t be going to a halfway house until February 2025. He has no clue how his wife and kids are going to survive financially as he was counting on getting back to work in August 2024. The family survives on what his wife makes and that isn’t much. They have been surviving off selling his assets and his 401k, but that is all gone now.

There is no donation that is too small. Getting into a halfway house and working is the only thing on his mind right now. “I just want to work and take care of my wife and my kids.” ANYTHING helps!

Left Behind and Without Non Profit

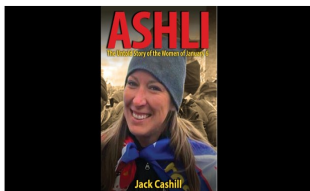

There has been some well deserved attention brought to the non-profit started by Marie Johnatakis after her husband was taken from her family. As the provider for their family of 7 was now incarcerated she was faced with pulling her children from the sports they loved as finances were no longer abundant.

While Marie is a J6 wife, and the organization could benefit J6 families, but the organization is also to benefit the children of those incarcerated across the jails and prisons in this country that are not J6ers.

Imaginary Martyrs Jack Cashill’s Book

Imaginary Martyrs: An Excerpt From Jack Cashill’s New Book ‘ASHLI: The Untold Story of the Women of January 6

By Guest Contributor May. 23, 2024 7:45 pm

While attending the Northern Neck Vigil (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uiSB2umFfeQ>) this past Friday I learned about this article and the book bringing attention to the women of January 6th. This article contains an excerpt from the book that is very informative, even for me! I did not realize that the “5 officers deaths” from that day originated with Hakeem Jeffries and was only repeated by prosecutors and judges. I did not know the one officer who died the day after was given a military service, but I was well aware Ashli was denied that, even though her death should have never occurred at the capitol that day. Barry Ramey's Family Enduring His Incarceration

Barry Ramey has been all over the east coast at this point, but not by his choice. I started learning who Barry was two years ago this coming August when the vigil started. He was one of two original pen pals that started my January 6th advocacy.

Barry's family and fiancé have stood by him and endured the stress of his movement from Florida jails on up to Northern Neck Regional (NNRJ, where he was when I started communicating with him), to Lewisburg when the guys were removed from NNRJ due to "Tucker Wars" that appeared in the Northern Neck Sentinel, and then to Alexandria where he endured solitary confinement (22 and 2 if I remember correctly), and then finally to DC awaiting sentencing.

As the article states, Barry was shipped out after sentencing (and shortly after Jenn Baker's interview). He made his way to Miami FL through several other facilities. He faces continuous issues that are touched on in the article. These issues are endured by Barry and his family. While this is the facility Barry requested, he did so due to his mother's health issues and her being able to visit him there as he finishes out his 5-year sentence. A sentence that will soon be before the appellate court.

Until that time Jenn Baker and advocates like her will continue to work, interview, and write on behalf of the J6 prisoners and their families giving them a voice to be heard by the American people.

Trump at Doral EDWARD BADALIAN (74878509)

7/12/2024 1:19:57 PM

Just finished watching the Trump Doral speech. It was cut up between Jesse Watters and Hannity, but I caught most of it. I teared up multiple times, but I held back. "Be strong Ed" I told myself ha-ha. :D

The democrat party and their globalist masters are the most heinous mass murderers; most insidious human and drug traffickers; and the most sinister liars the world has ever seen. We must win this election for Laken Riley, for Rachel Morin, for Jocelyn Nungaray and for all the innocent women and children murdered by the globalist left's policies. Whenever you feel exhausted and exasperated from this difficult fight, remember the Patriots who relentlessly fought and died to create this nation, to preserve it over the years, and those who are dying now on the border, in every town and city, in the womb, and in foreign deserts so that her hideous enemies can remain in power. We stand on the shoulders of giants, men and women who dedicated their lives to that which is greater than themselves: God, Family, Country, Liberty, and Culture. They gave the full measure of their devotion so we must do the same. If liberty was easy to obtain and maintain, it wouldn't be worth fighting for. Never ever give up. It's still going to take a lot of effort to win in November, no matter how bad the democrat candidates or policies are and I'm sure you all understand why.

Badalian Continued

When we win, the real battle will only just have begun. The enemies of the people will kick into full sabotage mode. We must use all legal avenues to identify, expose and rout them from all positions of power and influence and dismantle the hold they have over their cult's hearts and minds. We can turn their hatred of Trump, hatred of patriotism, and hatred of liberty into disgust at the puppet masters who have deceived them and brainwashed them with a false reality and false morality for all these decades. Once isolated, the corrupt few in the establishment will no longer have any cover nor any foot soldiers to save them from righteous legal prosecution. Everyone on Epstein's and P Diddy's list should be given 25 to life with no possibility of parole and thrown in general population at US Penitentiaries where sex offenders don't get any special treatment like they do here at Lompoc.

Anyways, feel free to share this message with anyone. If President Trump happens to ever read it, I want him to know that we J6ers and we the people have his back all the way. J6ers like Sheriff McAbee and Army veteran George Riley would be the perfect candidates for his Secret Service detail because they would go above and beyond the call of duty for this nation and the Constitution.

He should also know that there are thousands and thousands of inmates in federal prison who are thankful to him for the First Step Act, and he inspires them to turn their lives around and live righteously when they are freed. So many young men fall onto a dark path because Patriotism is dying in America. They need a purpose to live for, to fight for. We need to rebuild an economy where a man can support his family and buy a home by working hard at a legitimate job, so they will no longer be tempted by the drug trade.

Our schools must teach boys to be strong and love their country, and that its Constitution is worth defending, that what matters is not the color of your skin but the content of your character. The schools should teach girls about all the great things women have done in history without hating men or acting like men, about how their gender roles are arguably more important than those of men, rather than rejecting them so they can trade their husbands and fathers for corporate and political bosses. Men and women can be great leaders, athletes, warriors, programmers, artisans, artists, thinkers and speakers without compromising their nature. This is how to tackle the "root causes" of America's decline. We are done with the bought and paid for puppet politicians feeding us empty platitudes so they can remain in power and continue robbing us and betraying us mentally, physically and spiritually. We will restore sanity, morality, and prosperity in America!
