DAY 1385 of the J6 Political Hostage Crisis October 22, 2024

Barry Ramey Spends 3rd Birthday As Political Hostage Let Him Know He's Not Forgotten

The Corrupt DOJ may have removed Birthday options for the 3rd year in a row - but we're determined to have Barry feel honored on his Birthday & know he's not forgotten!!! Do inmates get anything for their birthday? No, not unless you count grief. J6 Political prisoner Barry Ramey will turn 41 while sitting in his prison cell this Saturday October 26th. Robbed of his rights to vote, watching on the sidelines of this election, another year passes where he's not allowed to (at minimum) receive birthday cards, have visitors or even have a decent meal, much less cake! Weeks have gone by and the mail room is still delaying giving him his mail, so he's cut off from the outside world. We are free as he sits in his cell, and we wish for him to know he's not forgotten. Being unable to honor a man who has been tortured for loving our Country is what it feels like BUT we still can let him know he's not forgotten and here's how.

OPERATION: Surprise Birthday Wishes!!! TWO WAYS TO LET BARRY KNOW HE'S NOT FORGOTTEN

OPTION #1 - YOUR BIRTHDAY MESSAGES/PRAYERS - Since Barry's mail is being held for weeks, he's cut off from the outside world. But Barry's fiancée speaks to him daily & she's asking for us to send birthday messages/prayers on the link below and SHE WILL SURPRISE HIM by READING YOUR BIRTHDAY MESSAGES TO HIM on his birthday! (Saturday Oct 26th)

OPTION #2 - BIRTHDAY FUN!! SEND MOVIES, MUSIC & FOOD - There are movies and music available for Barry to purchase on DIGITAL COMMISSARY to keep his mind entertained in addition to his monthly food commissary ($300). So, if you would like him to enjoy some TUNES, MOVIES & FOOD ON HIS BIRTHDAY and are able to send a small donation - SHE will get it on his books by the night before his birthday (Friday October 25th)! AN APPEAL TO HEAVEN

Patriot Mail Project

If one visits patriotmailproject.com one can not only find address to write and encourage most of the individuals that are enduring J6 charges, but their birthday, how long they have been enduring and if they are a Veteran (Veteran's Day is approaching). There is also a section for the pro-lifers who have are enduring incarceration for standing for life.

4Ashli.com

is a trove of information and events, as well as interviews with Micki and Nicole. At the bottom of the home page there are also ways to simplify donating to the defendants.

Direct2j6.com is another way to give directly to the J6ers and ensure the money is allocated in the best manner to meet the family needs.

Kenneth Bonawitz AKA Coach

Kenneth Bonawitz who is also known as Coach has an interview that was recorded while he was in the DC jail as well as a CondemnedUSA article reposted in hopes of getting attention to his name and his givesendgo account.

Bonawitz explains in the interview that he has worked his entire life and rebuilt his life after a divorce. He also explains plans he was working on for his future when he was detained. While explaining his plans he also explains that his children are starting families, and he does not wish to be a burden on them.

Bonawitz has been detained since January 26, 2023, and made his way through several facilities to the DC jail where most who know him came across him. He has a release date of February 15, 2027. Bonawitz is one of the numerous men who have been unable to work for a living wage the past year of incarceration and has several more to go unless pardons occur as we have heard about.

Bonawitz explains the health issues with eating the food served in most facilities with weight gain being the most common. Usually in federal facilities the food quality is better, but that is not always the case. Even if food is sufficient there are still toiletries and items to help with boredom that need to/could be purchased through commissary.

Also, in the interview Bonawitz mentioned the age at which he planned to retire. Something that will no longer be possible as he will leave FCI Ashland with little to nothing to his name and need to, again, start over. While he does have plans on how to do that, We the People need to Be the People and get him to his release date fed and encouraged that he can and will do this.

If you can give, please visit <https://www.givesendgo.com/> FreeCoach There you can learn more about his journey and donate to his account that currently sits at $935 which was spent months ago.

You can also write him an encouraging letter at the address pictured on the right. (Images taken from Flip the Switch w/ Jenn, CondemnedUSA substack and patriotmailproject.com)

Those Who Have Arrived Home We Cannot Forget Them!

I recently sent William “Billy” Chrestman a text message asking how he was. When he replied and I asked questions about the reply I learned a little of his incredible struggles since he left the halfway house and finally returned home and reunited with most of his family. The struggles do not end when they are on the other side of the walls and the houses that are not their own. In many ways the struggles have only begun.

Please do not forget those who have returned home from prison and the halfway houses. They are still in need of assistance to get by in a world that is more expensive than when they were removed from society. They are still in need of prayers and encouragement that they were receiving while incarcerated. Please do NOT forget about those who have gone home.

You can write to William Chrestman at c/o Patriot Mail Project, 124 Five Forks Dr, PMB# 101, King NC 27021 or donate at <https://www.givesendgo.com/j6dad> (Image taken from Patriot Mail Project)

James Grant Debut Appearance

James Grant appeared on his first podcast after his release from prison. He appeared on Inside J6 with Brian Lupo. Brian starts every episode with the same question, “What made you go on January 6th?” This led to a conversation about the irregularities in the 2020 election that still have NOT been clarified. There is also conversation about Jamie Raskin’s recent comments on Donald Trump being re-elected. James continues with where he was that day and some things that occurred at the first breach that are apparently not common knowledge.

James was a codefendant of Ryan Samsel and was in the vicinity of Ray Epps as he whispered in his ear and the first breach occurred. James walks through some of the events that happened that day and how he was codefendants with 5 men, but there were many who were guilty of the same actions that day.

James also goes into how he was arrested and then the FBI raided his home while he was in custody. This was unnecessary and traumatic to his brother and his parents who were dealing with his dad having his health issues.

James also goes into the conditions and the treatment in the Northern Neck Regional Jail. James touches on his trip through Lewisburg and then made his way to DC.

Talk about what Epps whispered in the ear of Ryan Samsel ear is a conversation that has occurred on multiple platforms. Brian posted an article on the Gateway Pundit this week stating he had an exclusive story that was coming forth for the first time since James’s release. However, James has spoken with Mel Hawley on two separate occasions about what was said to Samsel by Epps. One of the times is in a video voice recording. The other time was through email which does disappear in 30 days in the federal BOP email system. You can see all four times I am aware this issue has occurred and decide for yourself what you think about it.

Jonathan Mellis On Conservative Daily

Jon appeared on Conservative Daily last week. He started with the details of conditions in the DC jail where he spent three years, mostly pretrial. He continues with the improvements made by the J6 defendants. Professor Clements asks what the reception was from other inmates given the J6ers are factually innocent and follows it up with who was he when he was arrested and who walked out of the prison doors? Jon talks about helping all the men that he could to raise money through The Gateway Pundit. David Clements and Joe Oltman talk about being there from day one although the guys on the inside were not aware and felt abandoned.
