Jonathan Mellis Granted Bond

Jon Mellis' appeared in the courtroom via zoom yesterday. While he was not in the room to witness it, his supporters filled most of the room to hear the news that he would be granted bond pending trial. His trial date is currently scheduled for Monday, January 27th at the Williamsburg courthouse located at 5201 Monticello Avenue, Suite 6, Williamsburg, VA 23188.

While Jon was incarcerated he was not quiet! Jon appeared in several places. In case you missed them they are pictured below and links are in the email version for easy access.

(While incarcerated Jon called Northern Neck Vigil on Friday nights, he appeared on Conservative Daily, and in a Gateway Pundit article as well)

Reed Christensen Medical Needs Neglected

Myra Christensen is Reed Christensen's wife. Reed is the author of Save the Kid (SavetheKid.com). He is currently one of numerous elderly incarcerated individuals with January 6th charges.

Reed served this country for 4 years in the ARMY. He then attempted to run for office. Reed had to drop out of the race due to another stroke. Reed had his first stroke one week after returning home from January 6th. He was near Officer Bryan Siknick that day.

With Reed being elderly and having had several strokes medical attention is necessary, and up until 2 days ago he was not receiving his medications. This is a constant battle for the incarcerated.

Myra asks that people email the warden through the Bureau of Prisons (BOP.gov) site and write the warden of FCI Forest

Subject: Elation

All,

The last few days have been surreal, I stayed up till 3am, with permission, to watch the election as it was happening. As the results kept coming in it became more and more obvious "the people" were speaking loudly and clearly. I was impressed as well by the ground swell of patriotic Americans, Attorneys and others who volunteered their time to ensure an election were rules were followed in an unflinchingly ridged manner.

You by now are probably aware, but this election boasted a 12 million (plus or minus) vote deficit from the voter turnout of the 2020 cycle. I have heard radio pundits questioning what happened to those votes? To anyone who has followed this issue, who is familiar with the genesis of the January 6th, 2021 "Stop the Steal" rally in DC; it was because there was serious question as to how Joe Biden received 8 million more votes than Barrack Obama, while simultaneously Donald Trump increased his vote totals from 2016.

I have great faith that this question will eventually be answered definitively, and with the answer to how 12 million "ballots" did not materialize in 2024, the 2021 January 6th event will be vindicated. The "pipe bomb", and inexplicable events surrounding it along with the timing of Ray Epps' assault and initial breach will show the entire "riot" as a Bear Trap orchestrated to ensnare Trump Supporters and demonize "Election Denial".

It is my prayer that Donald Trump understands the "original sin" of January 6th. With what will undoubtedly be proven as an election wrought with fraud in 2020; the denial of National Guardsmen to protect the Capital by Nancy Pelosi; the potential "operation" of a planted pipe bomb at the RNC and DNC just in time to create a "Security Incident" to stop the reading of election irregularity onto the congressional record; the undercover federal employees or otherwise "bad actors" working on behalf of "Deep State" interests and/or entities; will all prove that January 6th was used as an entrapment opportunity to arrest, prosecute, persecute, imprison and demonize Trump supporters and alleged "Election Deniers".

Truly the platitude "the Truth will set you free" will take on tangible meaning for January 6ers and their families. I am grateful for all of your support as well as the support of ordinary Patriotic Americans who stepped up to make sure this election represented the will of the people and that we have a government by and for the people.

I look forward to Donald Trump and his promises made, promises kept campaign. I ask you to hold him to it, to raise your voice again, to support broad sweeping and full pardon for those who walked into the bear trap that was January 6th. It should never have happened, we should never have lost the 4 patriots that day, we should never have been put in that position as a people. The system can self-correct, as we are proving in real time. It should never have happened, regardless of what happened that day, remember the "Original Sin" began in November 2020 and rolled forward to January 6, 2021.

God Bless,

Taylor

Trials Postponed Pardons Coming?

This past week many in the January 6th community were chattering about pardons. There have been many of those incarcerated across the country hearing they would soon be going home and congratulated by the staff at the facilities.

This comes the same week as two federal court judges agreed to requests to delay trials for defendants stating there was no need to use resources if Trump is going to simply pardon them on inauguration day. This sentiment was shared by both Judge Carl Nichols and Judge Rudolph Contreras.

While this is not the first time defendants have asked for delays hoping to receive a pardon before being found guilty and or sentenced this is the first time any of the judges have granted the requests. The Justice Department objected to the delays, but the judges granted them anyway. (Image taken from The Gateway Pundit channel)

Pardons or Appeals For the Proud Boys

Joe Biggs is one among the proud boy leadership and among those holding the highest sentences for January 6th. He has a young daughter who he requested to see go to school at his sentencing before he was handed a sentence that would put him out after she graduates.

That all may be about to change. Trump spoke of pardons for the January 6th defendants while running for office. Now that he has been elected people are talking about the pardons. Biggs lawyer, Norm Pattis, is working on a request to commute the 17 year sentence. Pattis is also working on an appeal, although he hopes it will not be necessary.

Proud Boys organizer from Florida seeking pardon from President-elect Donald Trump, attorney says

Proud Boys organizer to seek pardon for Jan. 6
Proud Boys organizer and Ormond Beach, Florida native Joe Biggs is chipping away at a 17-year-prison sentence for his role on January 6th.

Pattis believes as soon as January 21st, the day after the inauguration the pardons may occur.

There are already several defendants having their appeals heard and awaiting rulings on those hearings. Meanwhile they are ALL hoping for pardons and to return home to whatever is left of their lives.

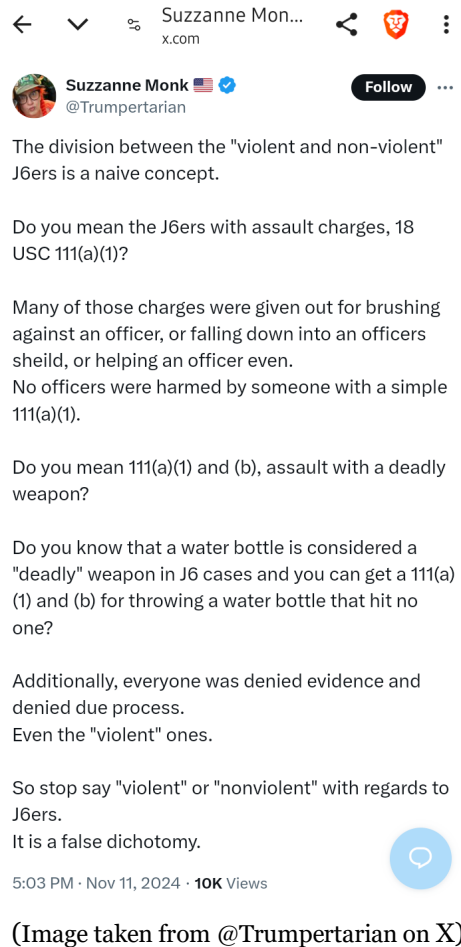

The anticipation and excitement only grow as January 21st approaches and we all await the answer and action of “Promises Made, Promises Kept.” (Image taken from Fox 35 Orlando)
