Gratitude From A J6 Family

A heartfelt thank you to all those who sent Birthday messages, prayers & donations for Barry. There were OVER 400 messages to read to him! He is humbled, grateful and feels supported! Exactly what we wanted!!!

I've also sent a copy of all the messages in the mail (who knows when it will get to him) so he could have it on hand for especially dark days. Our family is so grateful for each of you lifting Barry up in Prayer and little did we know this would fill our spirit with love and comfort us as well. If you haven't already, join our mailing list and I will continue to keep you updated. I try to send an email once a month, at most...but you can always visit the website for the latest, in between.

If you haven't heard Barry's voice and story, he tells all just after he was sentenced last year. Here is his riveting interview sharing details of treatment and the extent they went to create devious lies for an egregious outcome.

Watch here: <https://ospreysensei.com/interview-after-sentencing>

Praying that America shows up and votes Trump in for a pardon for all of our J6ers!!

God Bless!! - Osprey Sensei

All,

A few years ago, with the help of a friend (he did all the work, I only had the idea) we started a website called www.DollarsVoteLouder.com with the concept that as 'the people' our greatest strength lies in our individual choices, that like single drops of rain, eventually form raging rivers capable of moving anything in its path. Hydraulic forces are some of the strongest forces on earth, and so is the will of the people.

That will is expressed moment to moment and day by day when we vote with our DOLLARS, our EYEBALLS, and our CLICKS. In one week (or less by the time you read this), one of the other ways we the people express our will is with our BALLOTS.

If you have not already voted, please do, if you know someone who you think hasn't voted, please encourage them to do it-- do more than encourage it, help them register, help them get their ballot, and help them turn it in or go to a polling center/location to do it. Do not underestimate your power, do not think you don't matter, you do.

There is a trick, politicians and by extension the media play-- it's called the Hegelian dialectic. The idea is they take different topics and they corral the people on two side of any issue, pro-choice/pro-life, pro-war/anti-war, pro-union/right to work...Most issues, are more complex than the simple dualities we are spoon feed by the political industrial complex which in America has boiled things down to Republican - Democrat, Red - Blue paradigms.

We are in the middle of a realignment; some elections matter more than others. This is one of those. Donald Trump and his Maga movement has swallowed up the Republican party and has claimed the 'middle ground' or the 'common sense' positions that were tacked against by the traditional two-party system. For example, for the first time in living memory we have a 'republican party' that is anti-war AND pro-life... Traditionally the two-party system split the issues of life. To vote for prenatal life, you had to vote Republican, which also supported foreign war...To vote against foreign war, you had to vote for 'choice' and to sacrifice prenatal life. They split the issue of Life, and made you decide to support the life of babies, or our brothers and sister abroad. (Understandably, this isn't as simple as the duality I just presented, there are reasonable justifications for both Abortion and War, but the two party system took that debate from the people and placed with the politicians who simply made you 'split the issue' while in smoke filled rooms they tacked back and forth moving forward where THEY wanted to go, not where we did...hint-- war and abortion in our abundant world are both about population control).

The current election presents a choice between two candidates who have realigned, one party is pro-choice (abortion) AND Foreign war...One party is Pro-life AND anti-war...imagine that. I can go on for a long time about how almost every major issue that once was split by the Hegelian dialectic method has realigned. One party holds the commons sense middle ground, the other is on the extremes.

Please consider your vote in this cycle more important than ever, this election will solidify the direction we go in for the next generation.

Also...I have heard good things for my family and I if the Red team wins...

A Hero's Story

By Susan Ianni

An Open Letter to Meryl Streep, Sally Field, and Julia Roberts

I just finished watching "Silkwood" the 1983 in which Meryl Streep portrayed an unlikely young heroine named Karen Silkwood.

It made me think of two other courageous woman who risked everything to fight for the oppressed. They, too, were portrayed in blockbuster movies by wealthy, out-of-touch liberals: namely Norma Rae played by Sally Field and Erin Brockovich by Julia Roberts.

The irony inspired me to write the following open letter to those actresses. All are outspoken Kamala donors and proponents of a regime that has more thoroughly destroyed the lives, hopes, and dreams of our most vulnerable Americans than any other entity since the Great Depression.

So, here goes...

Dear Ladies,

You all have portrayed the roles of courageous woman who became extraordinary in their fights for voiceless Americans—downtrodden citizens injured by greedy corporations and big government interests. Did it feel righteous and fulfilling? Or did you do it simply for the big paychecks?

I am a J6er. I am one of those powerless citizen pawns despised, mocked, and steamrolled by your corporate sponsors and the same despots that you espouse through your generous campaign donations, including through the thoroughly unqualified candidate you fawn over.

You champion a government that has imprisoned veterans, grandmothers, pastors, firemen, and soccer moms for their politics, as well as parents who want a say in what their children are taught in school.

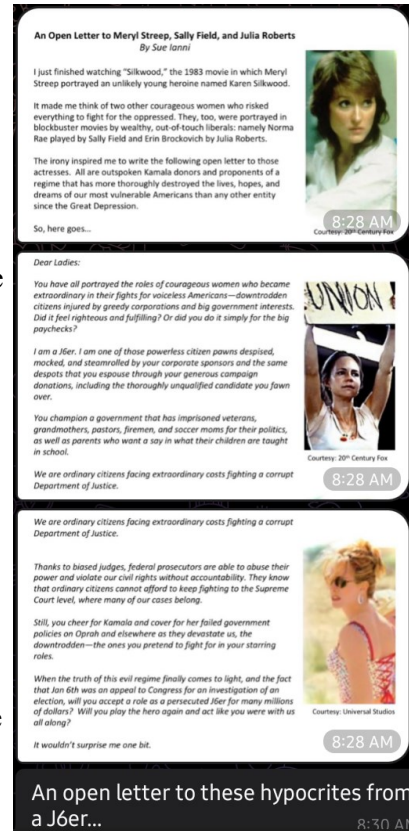

We are ordinary citizens facing extraordinary costs fighting a corrupt Department of Justice.

Thanks to biased judges, federal prosecutors are able to abuse their power and violate our civil rights without accountability. They know that ordinary citizens cannot afford to keep fighting to the Supreme Court level, where many of our cases belong.

Still, you cheer for Kamala and cover her failed government policies on Oprah and elsewhere as they devastate us, the downtrodden—the ones you pretend to fight for in your starring roles.

When the truth of this evil regime finally comes to light, and the fact that Jan 6th was an appeal to Congress for an investigation of an election, will you accept a role as a persecuted J6er for many millions of dollars? Will you play the hero again and act like you were with us all along? It wouldn't surprise me one bit.
