Suzanne Monk talks about the J6 Pardons—Stop Worrying!!

On December 5, Suzanne Monk (author of How To Pardon the J6ers: A Comprehensive Strategy Guide for President Donald J. Trump) was at Freedom Corner. This is what she said:

"Justice is Coming. She said she had conversations with many activists like Ann Vandersteel who are doing the work in the front lines and behind the scenes and wanted everyone to know that the J6ers need to be ready to be freed soon. When President Trump takes the oath he is going to mention the J6ers in his inauguration speech. She said that she has kept an up-to-date data base of ALL the information on ALL the J6ers and this was given to General Flynn today. This database also includes EVERY Judge and EVERY prosecuting attorney that was involved in the sentencings of the J6ers so that they can analyze and take care of these Judges and Attorneys who wronged the J6ers. Pam Bondi (Trump's new Attorney General) and the influencers will make sure that justice is served." This is what she told the Boston Globe today.

Update on J6 Children's Christmas Drive

There was a total of 61 families who registered their children for assistance. There was $39,040 donated and $640 will be sent to the families. Thank you to all who donated and all who have made this possible for the past three.

Blanket Pardons for All the J6ers—Pardon of Innocence

Those who were at the Capitol on January 6 were there to protest the certification of what they believed was a stolen 2020 election. Good and patriotic people just wanted to go inside the Capitol to see the "People's House." It didn't mean that they were criminals. They were enraged because of the derelictions of duty on the part of their elected representatives and had legitimate grievances.

The government drew first blood. The majority, if not all, of violence on the part of the protesters was in self defense or in defense of others. The civil and constitutional rights of the people and the protesters were violated by a weaponized and corrupt government. The protesters were fired upon by the police with rubber bullets and tear gas. They were beaten and trampled to death – provoked, causing them to respond defensively. The violence was justified. Those who took part in violence never received due process. Their constitutional rights subverted and withheld in the process. They worked to discredit the people and orchestrated the event, denying a proper certification process. The denial and subversion of the constitutional rights continued through the judicial process to include the physical and psychological torture driving several of the J6 political hostages to take their own lives.

ALL the J6ers need to be pardoned for these reasons:

- The protesters never received due process
- They were set up/entrapped as cover for a larger crime— government actions were clearly deliberate. There would be no arrests had the government not set the stage on purpose.
- Forced to go to trial without all the evidence; exculpatory evidence was deliberately withheld
- They were over charged and over sentenced
- They were wrongfully denied bail
- The punishment they received didn't fit the crime
- Denied proper treatment; medical, basic needs
- They were in pretrial detention for 4 years
- Many were tortured physically and psychologically
- The defendants were denied a jury of their peers
- The offenses on the part of the government against the people cannot heal if this atrocity is not addressed, and addressed well.

Reparations/Compensation need to come from the Federal Government, not from a lawsuit which would take years and be heard in DC where the jurisdiction is corrupt.

HEALING & RESTORATION

Doug and Jenny have been blessed with 11 beautiful acres in the Texas Hill Country, a place they believe God led them to for a greater purpose: to hire, feed, and house January 6th defendants as they transition out of prison and rebuild their lives. Their property, currently operating as a thriving bed and breakfast, offers ample space to develop housing for these individuals.

Doug and Jenny have worked tirelessly to create a supportive network of local business owners, guests, and patrons eager to employ and mentor the J6 defendants. This network aims to provide them with opportunities to reestablish themselves in a welcoming, conservative, and patriotic community.

Their first major goal is to raise $500,000 to construct 3–5 tiny homes and the necessary infrastructure to house 3–10 individuals on-site. These homes will provide a safe space where participants can learn new job skills, embrace sustainable living, and begin the journey of healing and forgiveness—physically, emotionally, and spiritually—all at no cost to the defendants.

This project represents not just a fresh start for those in need but also a beacon of hope and redemption.

EMPLOYMENT: A network has already been created of employers across Texas who are willing to hire the J6ers regardless of what criminal record they may now have. We currently have jobs available in the construction, manual labor, hospitality, and retail industries.

If you have an employment opportunity, please contact us.

HIRE A J6ER: BUILDING A NEW LIFE: We are steadfast in building a robust network dedicated to the healing and restoration of January 6th defendants—addressing their needs in body, soul, and spirit. Our team already includes pastors, spiritual leaders, medical professionals, and banking and tax advisors who have joined us in this mission.

Additionally, several business professionals have stepped forward, ready to assist the defendants in rebuilding their previous small businesses and establishing new ventures in the community.

If you have a skill, service, or resource to offer—or if you'd like to support these efforts financially—please reach out to us or make a donation. Together, we can provide the tools and support needed to help these individuals rebuild their lives and move toward a brighter future.
